

Hello Parents,

St. Rose of Lima School Reading Week will be celebrated from Friday, April 27 to Friday, May 4th. The week is full of events that hopefully will inspire and celebrate a love of reading. Many teachers have mystery readers scheduled throughout the week. Students should bring in books of their choice to read all week. Please look over the schedule and contact Mrs. Powers with any questions. We are looking forward to this special week!

Friday, April 27th

Flashlight Friday--St. Rose School will turn out the lights for a bit and read by flashlight. Please send in a small flashlight to school with your child. Students will be expected to keep the flashlights tucked away in their backpacks until the Flashlight Friday event begins.

Monday, May 1st

Oh the Places You'll Go Day--“The more you read the more places you'll go...” Dr. Seuss

Students may wear a t-shirt or sweatshirt from their favorite high school or college. Our 8th graders will visit classrooms and read students a special story.

Teachers will distribute special Reading Bingo Cards. Students will bring home the cards and all completed cards that are returned by Friday will earn them a special prize.

Tuesday, May 2nd

Pop Open a Good Book Day

Students will enjoy a popcorn treat while reading.

All classrooms will also host a book swap on Tuesday. Students may bring in a book from home to donate to the book swap. They will then be able to take home a book from the swap.

Wednesday, May 3rd

Read My Shirt and Dress As Favorite Book Character Day

Rosebuds students to Grade 5 may wear a shirt with writing on the front. All shirt statements must be Catholic school appropriate.

Middle School Students may dress as their favorite book character. Students MUST have the book with them.

Thursday, May 3rd

Cozy Up With a Good Book Day

Students may wear PJs to school and should bring a book, blanket/beach towel, and small pillow for this cozy reading event. All pajamas MUST be Catholic school appropriate (No slippers, footie pjs, nightgowns, PINK brand, etc.)

Friday, May 4th

Grandparents Day.

Students may read with their grandparent and visit the book fair.
